YESTRADAY morning at 6:30 o'clock a ceremony, very solemn and impressive in its mature, took place at Mt. de Chantal. It was termed a "reception;" two young ladies took the first of two steps towards renouncing the world, and taking upon themselves the vows of chastity, powerly and obedience as muss. Bishop Katn officiated, assisted by the Chaplain of the Mount. Miss Saddie O'Brien, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Bradley, of Grafton, both accomplished ladies were the ones to take this important step. Very few outside of those belonging to the institution, were witnesses of the ceremony.

At a meeting of stockholders of the Franklin Insurance Company held yesterday, the following named persons were elected directors: J. N. Vance, M. Belliy, James Maxwell, J. H. Hobbs, T. P. Shallcross, Geo. Adams, J. K. Botsford, L. C. Stife and C. P. Dewey. A. dividend of 10 per cent was declared payable on demand. The stockholders decided to discontinue business under the present charter after March 1st, and a new charter will be taken out with the following gentlemen as incorporators: J. N. Vance, M. Reilly, J. E. D. Belpalain, James Maxwell, Earl W. Oglebay and T. P. Phillips. The character and standing of the incorporators is a sufficient guarantee that the new company will be, like the old one, a soild and substantial institution. The capital stock will be $100,000.

Husted, Philadelphis," on the register at the McLure House Jest evening, set speculation agog as to the matters of importance that are deserving of evening, set speculations agog as to the muture of their errand here. Mr. Cellier is the principal agent of D Oyle Carte the American representative of Gilbert & Bullivan, the operation and the substitution of the Samusement enterprises. The coincidence of their arrival upon the evening on which "Iolanthe" was to be presented at the Opera House by Ford's company attimulated these speculations, on which found further stimulus in a telegram from Pittaburgh saying that Carte himself was there, and that it was romored that he intended to enjoin the proposed performance there by the Emma Abbott company of the same epera. Mesers. Collier and Husted was been been presented to the Husted was been been by the Emma Abbott company of the same epera. Mesers. Mr. Ford says that if any attempt is made to enjoin any set the company is beaten all will have to stop giving the piece.

Mr. Cellier was seen later. He said that the facts in regard to the music of the opera from the score and libratic solid by Boddardt, of Philadelphia, all will unite to resist the sction, and if one company is beaten all will have to stop giving the piece.

Mr. Cellier was seen later. He said that the facts in regard to the music of the opera were that J. M. Stoddart, the publisher, of Philadelphia, bought from Gibert & Sullivan for a large sum, the right to publish the libration and score of the opera. Il Oyle Carte bought the right to produce it and as the production was delayed, Mr. Stoddard told him he could play it in New York for eight weeks before the music should be published. Carte slid not want the music sold at all, but it was sold, and so because public property. The orchestration has never been printed however, and is the exclusive property of Mr. Carte in this country, it is rumored that one or two companies not authorised to do so are using the original orchestration, and it was for the sake of ascertaining if the Abbott or Ford's was doing so that this visit was made.

late President of the National Phar-maceutical Association of the United States, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters has a heavy sale, is conceded to be a fine tonic; the character of the manu-facturers is a voucher for its purity and medicinal excellence."

DR. JOSEPH ROBERTS, President Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says: "I indorse it as a fine medicine, reliable as a strengthening tonic, free from alcoholic poisons."

Dr. J. Faris Moore, Pil. D., Professor of Pharmacy, Balti-more Pharmaceutical College, says: "Brown's Iron Bitters is a safe and reliable medicine, positively free from alcoholic poisons, and can be recommended as a tonic for use among those who oppose alcohol."

DR. EDWARD EARICKSON. "I indone it as an excellent medicine, a good digestive agent, and a non-intoxicant in the fullest sense."

Dr. RICHARD SAPINGTON, one of Baltimore's oldest and most reliable physicians, says: "All who are used it praise its standard virtues, and the well-known character of the house which makes it is a sufficient guarantee of its being all that is claimed, for they are men who could not be in-duced to offer anything else but a reliable medicine for public use."
